

CPMS PROPOSAL REVIEW WORKSHEET

This worksheet is intended to help reviewers evaluating Community Program Medical Scholars proposals to identify relevant strengths and weaknesses.

Review Criteria	Very Weak	Weak	Average	Strong	Very Strong
-----------------	-----------	------	---------	--------	-------------

SCIENTIFIC MERIT

1. New or original ideas
2. Relevance/significance of proposed research for advancing health policy or practice
3. Rationale/justification of project
4. Description of hypotheses
5. Fit of hypotheses with proposed project
6. Feasibility of proposed project
7. Experimental design and methodology
8. Probability of meaningful results
9. Feasibility of project timeline
10. Logical organization; clarity of writing

QUALITY OF COMMUNITY PARTNERSHIP

1. Significance of project for promoting efficacy of organization and/or improve community health policy
2. Description of community organization
3. Background on partnership development
4. Description of community partner's role on project

LEARNING EXPERIENCE

1. Potential for learning research skills related to community-based research
2. Potential for learning "partnership" skills related to community-based research

APPLICANT QUALIFICATIONS

1. Relevant training skills and experience for project completion
2. Rationale for choice of project and community partner

PROGRAM EVALUATION

1.
----	--	--	--	--	--

DISSEMINATION OF RESULTS

1. Description of dissemination in academic arena
2. Description of dissemination with community

ADVISORS

1. Description of how advisor's background and expertise will facilitate project completion
2. Adequacy of available resources

Modified from the American Heart Association Western Affiliate Optional Beginning Grant-in-Aid Reviewer Worksheet